World Physiotherapy Day Celebration

The College of Physiotherapy, Sumandeep Vidyapeeth, India celebrated the world physiotherapy day on 8th September' 2014. The program was in two parts. The first part was conducted at College of Physiotherapy, Sumandeep Vidyapeeth and the second was conducted at auditorium, SBKS MIRC, Sumandeep Vidyapeeth. Based on this year's theme of world physiotherapy day i.e. "Fit to take part", various activities were organised.

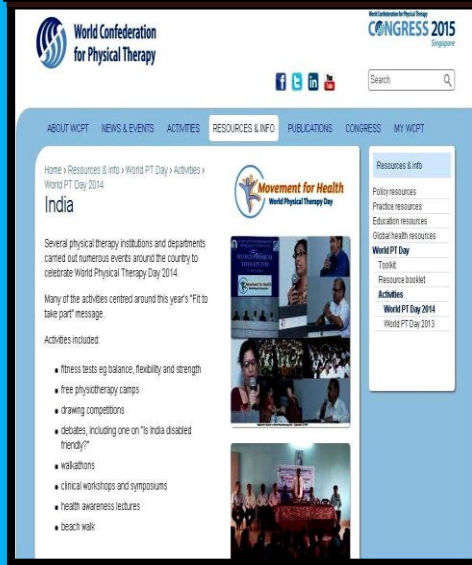

They are as followed:

- The undergraduate students prepared posters illustrating role of physiotherapy in helping people with disability for active participation in the society.
- A unique competition, "Best out of Waste" was held for students which can be used to train the disabled people. Here the students prepared various projects from waste i.e. used plastic bottles, saline bottles, news papers, old clothes etc.
- A debate was organised on "Is India disabled friendly?" for postgraduate students. There were two teams with each team having four students. One team spoke "for" the subject while the other team was speaking "against" the subject. The debate was quite interesting and both teams defended them self brilliantly. But at the end the team favouring "India is NOT disabled friendly" won.

- The college of physiotherapy invited Mrs Prabha Mehta, President and Executive Director, Disha charitable trust, Vadodara, , as a special guest of honour. Disha charitable trust is a premiere organisation in India working for empowerment of children with disabilities and their families in this part of country since the year 1999.
- Prof Dr Shagun Desai, Dept of Pharmacology, SBKS MIRC, Sumandeep Vidyapeeth, who suffers from post polio syndrom was invited as a guest of honour to share his experience.
- A survey in the community is initiated by College of Physiotherapy, Sumandeep Vidyapeeth to know how many disabled are contributing to the society and how it can be maximized.
